

Title: Bowie State University Opioid Addiction Resources

Learn more from Bowie State University on Opioid Support:

Sources: <https://www.bowiestate.edu/campus-life/health-and-wellness/alcohol-tobacco-and-other-drug-prevention-center/>

<https://www.bowiestate.edu/campus-life/health-and-wellness/henry-wise-wellness-center/general-information-and-services/index.php>

1. How can Bowie state students get help with opioids and other substance abuse?

- Request an appointment with the counseling services at counselingservices@bowiestate.edu.
- Email counseling services to connect with a peer educator at atod@bowiestate.edu.

2. Where can Bowie state university students learn more about drug prevention education?

- The Alcohol, Tobacco, and Other Drugs Prevention Center. This center is located at Alcohol, Tobacco and Other Drugs Prevention Center in the Thurgood Marshall Library, Room 270. They can be reached by phone at 301-860-4126 and email at atod@bowiestate.edu.

3. Where can Bowie state university students seek help about opioids?

- At the Henry Wise Wellness Center it is located in the Christa McAuliffe Residence Hall, Lower Level
- The phone number is 301-860-4170 or by email at counselingservices@bowiestate.edu

4. Where can Bowie state university students learn more about resources for opioid addiction and abuse

- More information can be found on www.bowiestate.edu/campus-life/health-and-wellness/

5. Who can bowie state university students use the Wellness Center on campus?

- All full-time or part-time undergraduate and graduate students can be treated at the Wellness Center. Student under 18 years of age must have a signed parental consent form on file for all services except emergency and reproductive health services.

6. Do bowie state university students have to have Health Insurance to use the Wellness Center for Opioid addiction or other services on campus?

No, but students are strongly encouraged to obtain health insurance to cover the costs of hospitalization, surgery, complicated diagnostic procedures, or medications not carried by the Wellness Center. Learn more about student health insurance.